Ecumenical Prayer Vigil for Peace

Saturday 22 March 2003

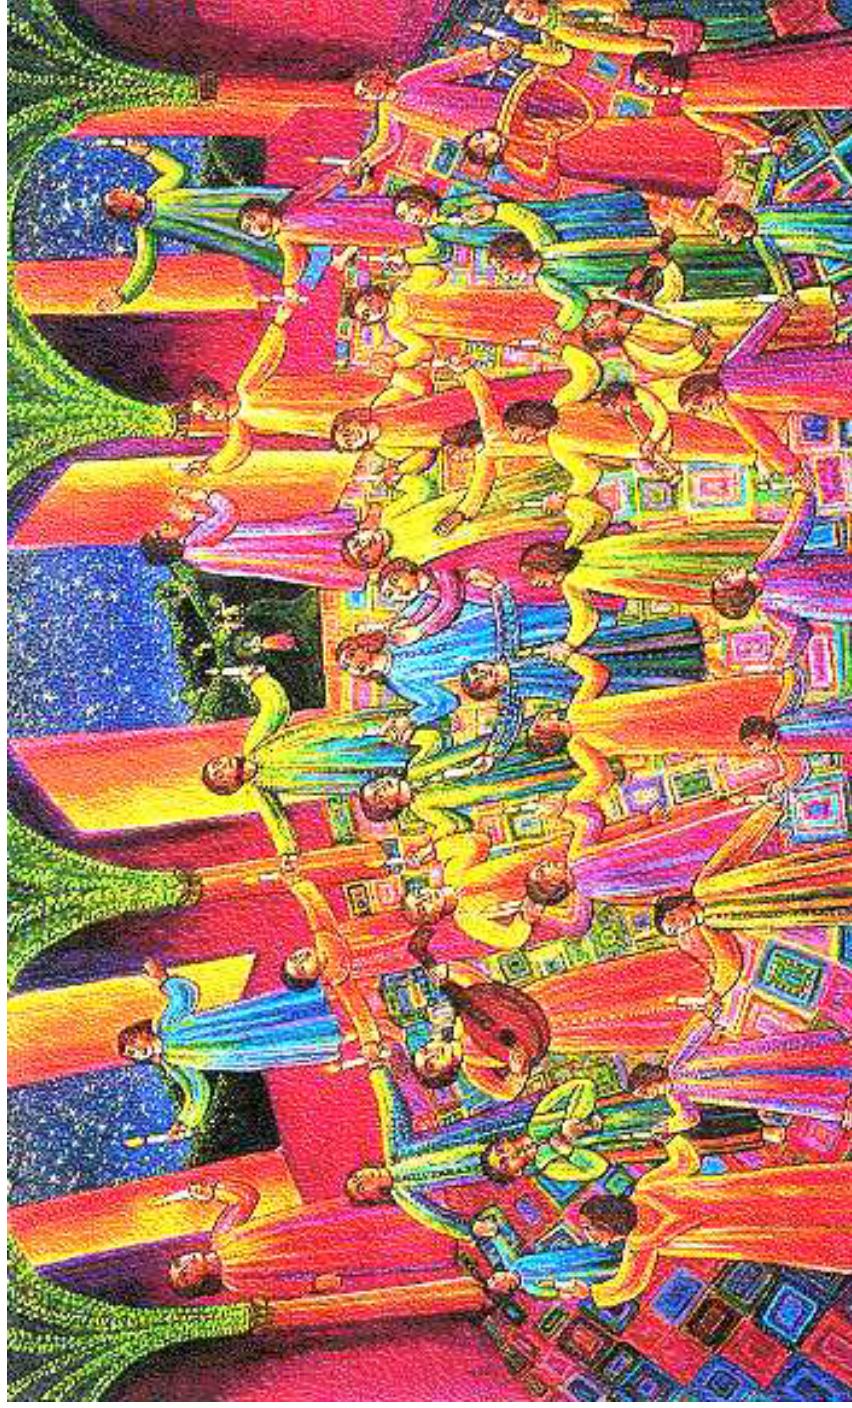

Sponsored by the

The Canadian Council of Churches

Held at St. Michael's Roman Catholic Cathedral

65 Bond Street, Toronto, Ontario

"Lord, make us instruments of your peace."

Welcome!

On behalf of His Eminence Aloysius Cardinal Ambrozic, I wish to extend a warm and personal welcome to the participating members of the Canadian Council of Churches and to all who have gathered here at St. Michael's Cathedral Church for this timely ecumenical prayer service for peace.

The cathedral's mission is one of preaching, prayer and service with the people of God, especially with and for the poor. We consider this a singular opportunity to join together with you in this prayer for peace.

It is my hope that this shared time will bring God's special grace upon us and upon the world.

Msgr. Sam Bianco
Rector, St. Michael's Cathedral

On behalf of the Canadian Council of Churches and especially its President, Bishop André Vallée, I welcome you to this service of prayer, music and light in defiance of darkness. Your prayers are very important this day and in the days to come, we are thankful that you are here and thankful indeed for all the commitment of St. Michael's Cathedral to this event of witness in the name of the Prince of Peace.

The Rev. Dr. Karen Hamilton
General Secretary
The Canadian Council of Churches

We begin in a darkened church, waiting in silence. Please stand as representatives from the twenty Christian denominations associated with the Canadian Council of Churches process in, receive the light of Christ, and share that light with all here assembled.

We kindly request that you refrain from taking photographs or videos during the opening service of light (until the congregation's tapers are blown out) for the safety of those participating and for the prayerfulness of the service.

Gathering Song

Rev. Philip Heinze

Gathering Prayer

Bishop John Boissonneau

Lord, all powerful God and Prince of Peace, we beseech you, hear the prayers of those who are gathered in your name.

We come here today affirming our faith in you, who are our shepherd, rich in mercy and compassion; for you do not delight in the destruction of your creation, but seek to uphold the noble image of humankind which your hands have fashioned.

We employ you now to inspire good things in the hearts of those who desire conflict and strife.

Show us tranquility, peace and reconciliation in a world troubled and grieved by the evidence of instability and war.

We ask this in Jesus' Name through the power of the Holy Spirit, one God now and always. Amen.

Litany of Confession

(based on Psalm 8 and from Prayers for Peace and Justice – RCA)

Rev. Siebrand Wiltz, Rev. Kevin Livingstone, Rt. Rev. Maurice Hicks, Deacon Nurhan Ipek

Holy God,

You lead us in ways that are right and true.

Your mercies are beyond compare.

You breathe upon Creation the Spirit of Peace.

As we gather, help us to recognize the things that make for peace in our lives and in your world.

As we approach you in worship,

may your presence of Grace and Peace be with us.

Through Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.

L. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

C. You have set your glory above the heavens.

L. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and stars, which you have set in place, what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?

C. You made them a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned them with glory and honour.

L. You made them ruler over the works of your hands; you put everything under their feet.

C. In love you have fashioned the human family in a variety of races, languages and cultures.

L. Do not let our diversity divide us, but help us to welcome gifts we can give and receive from one another.

C. Save us from prejudice, arrogance and fear and teach us how to live together as members of one family, sharing one home.

L. We pray for all those from whom we are estranged.

C. Bring healing to strained and broken relationships.

L. Forgive us for the times we have wronged others, whether by ignorance, neglect or intention.

C. Grant us the courage and the grace to seek their forgiveness and opportunity to make amends.

L. Where others have wronged us, grant us a gracious spirit that we might forgive even as we have been forgiven in Jesus Christ.

C. Have mercy on us, O God. Help us to trust your power to change our lives, and the lives of our leaders so that all of us may live in peace.

L. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

C. Amen!

Assurance of Pardon

Rev. William Veenstra

L. I will make for you a covenant on that day says the Lord, and I will take you for my own in faithfulness. I will make for you a covenant with the wild animals, the birds of the air, the creeping things of the ground; and I will abolish the bow, the sword, and war from the land; and I will make you lie down in safety. I will take you for my own forever; I will take you for my own righteousness and justice, in steadfast love and mercy. (Based on Hosea 2: 18 – 20)

Please extinguish candles and be seated.

Responsive Reading Rev. John Furry, Fr. Messale Engeda

L. Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed. (Psalm 85:10)

C. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those who publish peace. (Isaiah 52:7)

L. For you shall go out with joy and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. (Isaiah 55:12)

C. Some trust in their war chariots and others in their horses, but we trust in the power of the Lord our God. (Psalm 20:7)

L. God shall judge between many peoples, and shall decide for strong nations far off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.
(Micah 4:3)

C. But they shall sit every one under his vine and under her fig tree, and none shall make them afraid. For the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken. (Micah 4:4)

L. The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid, and the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. (Isaiah 11:6)

C. And his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. (Isaiah 9:6)

All: Seek peace and pursue it. (Psalms 34:14)

Responsive Reading: Romans 12:9-21

Anne Mitchell, Rev. Carol Penner

R1 Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good;
R2 love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour.
R1 Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.
R2 Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.
R1 Contribute to the needs of the saints, extend hospitality to strangers.

C Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them.

R2 Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.
R1 Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are.
C Do not repay evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.

R2 If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

R1 Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord."

R2 No, "if your enemies are hungry feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads."

C Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Prayer for St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.

Where there is hatred... let me sow love.

Where there is injury... pardon.

Where there is discord... unity.

Where there is doubt... faith.

Where there is error... truth.

Where there is despair... hope.

Where there is sadness... joy.

Where there is darkness... light.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek

To be consoled.... as to console.

To be understood... as to understand.

To be loved... as to love.

For

It is giving... that we receive.

It is in pardoning... that we are pardoned.

It is in dying... that we are born to eternal life.

All are most cordially invited to join us for an informal reception in the hall across the street.
